City and County of NEW-YORK;

WHICH ELECTION BEGAN

On Monday the 7th Day of March, and ended on Friday the 11th, of the same Month, in the Year of our LORD MDCCLXVIII. ✓

1768

ALPHABETICALLY MADE.

1880
C.R.

Land Library, Jan 4, 1880,

My dear Mr. Peck:

I have to thank you very cordially for your kindness in sending to the British Society for me, a set of your very handsome reproductions of the U. S. Post Lists in 3 vols. &c.

It seems to me you have been remarkably successful in this work and your printer has come up to your mark in carrying out your design.

Referring to the subject of our conversation some weeks ago, I am now able to give you the assessment of one of your name in New York in December, 1695, "for the maintainance of y<sup>e</sup> Poor for Six Months".

He was Jacob Penix, a resident of the West Ward and his "house and Estate" were valued at 40 pounds upon which his rate or tax amounted to ten pence — one farthing in the pound.

The whole city tax on this occasion was fifty pounds.

There was no change I think in residence or valuation in his case during the years following to and including 1699. I hope soon to have in my hands the lists from 1699 — 1703 : 1709 — 1721 :

and 1721 - 34 : as I have recently "interviewed" the present holder of the documents ; and think he said yes to my proposition : although rather faintly and with possible reservations ; which may imply delay.

If it did not cost so much more than ordinary printing, I would print all I can get of these bits in full in our Publication Fund Series. It would be one of the most useful and interesting contributions to our local family history ever to be made. So far as they are complete they would furnish a directory and census of all the N.Y. taxpayers from 1695 to 1734 with only one hiatus: viz: ~~from~~ between 1703 and 1709.

But I must by you again not to betray my knowledge of these documents, as I fear some interference which would defeat my purpose of scanning them all for our Society.

Yours, my dear Sir,

Very Sincerely Yours,

Esq. Moore

J. Whitney Provost, Esq.
